The Honorable Lewis L. Strauss
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Lewis:

Thank you for your letter of June 26, in which you raise the question of a debriefing.

In your new duties as Special Assistant to the President, you will undoubtedly require the clearances involved and, for our part, we intend to continue to provide you the same intelligence support that we have in the past.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

26 June 1958

Dear Allen:

On January 14, 1957, I signed an agreement to notify you of any change in my status. This was in connection with certain briefings which I have had.

As of July 1st, I cease to be Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, and undertake duties as a Special Assistant to the President.

While I know that this is all quite familiar to you, I nevertheless find the necessity of fulfilling an undertaking to send you a formal notification.

Yours faithfully,

Lewis
